

GREENE RANCH IS RAIDED BY REBELS

Rurales Are Sent Into the Mountains After Rebels Near Cananea.

CANANEA, Sonora, Mex., Feb. 17.—Word was received by the officials here this morning that the malcontents led by Rodriguez, Duhaque, and Corrado had left the neighborhood of Puerto Libertad and gone to the Nogales ranch, owned by the Cananea Cattle company, located about 25 miles from Cananea, where they appropriated everything in the ranch house, including guns, blankets, etc., and secured sufficient horses to mount all the men.

A courier arrived in town at 7 a. m. from Cananea, reporting that the bandits had been seen passing through that place.

Rurales, numbering 25, arrived in Cananea yesterday from Hermosillo and have been sent in pursuit of the fugitives.

The volunteers who organized to give battle to the malcontents, have in the majority remained at the task and a number are at present reported to be on the trail of the band.

The soldiers who were sent out to give battle to the band seemed unable to locate them and it is reported that they were at one time within a mile of their camp.

It is probable that the band of rebels will make for Arizpe, which town has been notified of their heading that way.

BROWN DID NOT CARRY OUT THREAT TO QUIT MILITIA

Fourth Infantry, of the Texas national guards, did not leave the company's command in defiance of his captain's orders yesterday, as he declared to a Herald man he would. In fact, he did not leave the command at all. Yesterday morning while doing service with company B, Brown concluded he could not be held for military duty, and said he was going to attend a nurse case. He thought he knew the military law on this subject, and that nurses were exempt from military service, but after again consulting the regulations, he changed his mind and remained at the camp until the company was dismissed.

OHIOANS ARE DETAINED BY OFFICIALS IN JUAREZ

Marion, Ohio, Feb. 17.—Several wealthy Ohioans were arrested Thursday at Juarez by Mexican soldiers, according to telegrams received here yesterday. The party was sightseeing when taken into custody. Soon the release of the party was ordered, whereupon American soldiers told them to return to El Paso.

One of the telegrams was from Benj. Waples, a banker of this place, who said:

"Revolt against Madero progressing rapidly. Border about to rise."

NO INSTRUCTIONS IN THE CASE OF LIEUT. FIELD YET

No instructions have been received from Washington as yet in regard to the case of Lieut. Ben W. Field, the lieutenant commanding the detachment of infantrymen who were shot such a panic into the citizens of Juarez by crossing the boundary line. The lieutenant is on parole at the Infantry camp and has been relieved of his command. What Washington authorities will do in the affair is still a matter of conjecture.

"There's a Reason"

Dear Amy:—

In reply to your letter asking me where to furnish your new home, I advise you by all means to go where I do, and buy everything you want from them.

They do an absolutely honest furniture business. They sell you furniture, correct in style, and that which is put together so it won't come apart. The prices they make are low, I know. I've looked around.

In haste,

your pal,

Lou.

P.S.—By all means, Amy, get your furniture from

NEW MAYOR FOR JUAREZ ARRIVES; MESTAS WILL SURRENDER THE OFFICE

Emiliano Enriquez, the newly appointed jefe politico, arrived in Ciudad Juarez on the Mexican National train Saturday morning from the city of Chihuahua. It is expected he will assume the duties of chief executive of the border city on Monday.

Mr. Enriquez said: "I cannot say what efforts I will institute until I have investigated conditions. I cannot tell what the city needs, but I will do my best to see that the best is done for Juarez."

The new jefe politico has seen service in Juarez before. He was jefe politico of the city during the months of November and December, 1910, and prior to that had come here as a peace commissioner during the time that negotiations were pending at Juarez for the settlement of the Mexican revolution in May, 1910.

Last week he visited El Paso with governor Abraham Gonzalez, of Chihuahua, and with him returned to the city of Chihuahua, where he operates a box factory, and has several other big business interests.

As soon as Mr. Enriquez is ready to assume the duties of the office to which he has been appointed, Santiago Mestas, the present incumbent, will resign. Mr.

Mestas will offer no objection to being displaced, and on Saturday morning he said: "I was appointed on February 2 by the governor of the state of Chihuahua to fill this office. I had previously been selected by the people, following the late unpleasantness. Therefore I am subject to the orders of the government."

"When will they hold the election for jefe politico, did you ask? Well, the government is so busy with many other things that it has almost forgotten about that. I cannot say when it will be held."

New Customs Collector.

Eduardo Picaso is expected to arrive in Ciudad Juarez from Mexico City some time next week to assume the duties of collector of customs.

No official advice has yet reached Juarez customs authorities relative to the holding of the port of Poloma by the Vasquezes, though it is known and acknowledged that such is the case.

KIMMEL'S FATHER DENIES HE IS DEAD

Declares in Deposition that White Had Not Claimed to Be His Son.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 17.—The reading of the deposition of Henry T. Kimmel, father of George A. Kimmel, who disappeared in Arkansas City, Kan., in 1898, closed the plaintiff's side in the suit for the recovery of the Bank of Miles, Mich., against an insurance company for the insurance of Kimmel.

The father, who has not lived with his wife for 14 years and has not been east of Chicago in that time, deposed that he was not dead as the claimant, Andrew J. White, had claimed, and that he had not heard from anyone who claimed to be his son.

Mrs. Estelle Kimmel, the mother of the missing man, underwent a severe cross-examination soon after the opening of court. Her direct testimony was not shaken.

R. M. Snyder Jr., of Kansas City, was the first witness for the defense. He was prepared, the defense announced, to attack the testimony of John R. Swinney, who previously testified that R. M. Snyder and he were present when Kimmel was killed in Oregon.

While Snyder was testifying, attorney Wickert and solicitor general Lehmann entered the court room and sat with Judge Amidon. The visitors said they had come merely out of curiosity.

Snyder identified the signature of his

AMERICANS BRING HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Refugees Come From Mexico Prepared to Stay a While.

A number of shipments of household effects have been passed through the customs in the past two days. The goods belong to the Americans who are leaving Mexico on account of its disturbed condition. The shipments have come from the city of Chihuahua, Santa Rosalia and Jimenez.

A herd of 731 head of cattle for the Cameron cattle company passed through the customs today. The cattle came from interior points in Mexico.
